Upon the Thirty-nine Articles of the Church of England.

By M. MADAN, A. B.

CHAPLAIN to the Right Honourable Henry Lord Apſley, Lord High Chancellor of Great-Britain, and to the Lock Hoſpital, near Hyde Park corner.

1 Pet. 2, 1. There were falſe prophets alſo among the people, even as there ſhall be falſe teachers among you, who privily ſhall bring in damnable hereſies.

The author in his preface obſerves, 'When good Biſhop 'Latimer (who with Biſhop Ridley was burnt by the papiſts 'for maintaining the doctrines in the following articles) was 'going to the ſtake, he ſaid to his fellow ſufferer, Be of good 'comfort Mr. Ridley, and play the man,—we ſhall this day light 'ſuch a fire in England by God's grace, as I truſt ſhall never be 'put out. The ſort of fire which conſumed their bodies, 'was extinguiſhed with the extinction of Popery, but the 'fire which this good Biſhop meant, now burns and ſhines in 'the eſtabliſhed doctrines of the Church of England.'

POLAND, SEPT. 23.

LETTERS of good authority from Warſaw give us hopes, that the negociations of peace between the Turks and Ruſſians may be reſumed before the end of the Winter. Mr. d'Obreſkow remains at Fockzani, and it is expected that Gen. Weiſmann, who has paſſed the Danube with a conſiderable body of troops, may contribute to render the Turks more tractable.

Auſtria, Sept. 28. Notwithſtanding the report that a congreſs will be held relative to the affairs of Poland at Warſaw, we are aſſured that it will be held at Lemberg as ſoon as Count Pergen, Commiſſary Plenipotentiary to their Imperial Majeſties, and the Miniſters of the Courts of Peterſburgh and Berlin arrive there. The accounts of the Auſtrian troops advancing from Hungary towards the Frontiers of Turkey are confirmed.

Extract of a letter from Berlin, Sept. 15.

"We are assured that the King our most gracious Sovereign has caused possession to be taken of all Polish Prussia, and hath issued a manifesto relative to that measure; that on the 27th of this month, his Majesty's new subjects will take the oath of fidelity; and that there will for the future be placed in each of the principal towns of that province, a garrison, consisting of a great number of soldiers. So that this great affair is now firmly settled."

BOSTON, December 14.

We hear that a Man of War arrived at New-York last Week after a long Passage from England; and on Thursday Evening last an Express arrived in Town with Dispatches for Admiral Montagu, since which one or two of his Majesty's Ships in our Harbour have been fitting out, which we hear are destin'd for Rhode-Island, and that the Admiral is to hoist his Flag on board one of the Men of War, and proceed himself for that Place, in Consequence of some important Dispatches from England.

It is currently reported, that two Regiments are ordered from New York to Rhode-Island, to support the Trial of Persons there suspected, or rather informed against, for being concerned in burning the Gaspee some Time ago. The Governor and Lieut. Governor of this Province, two of the appointed Judges, we hear set out for that Place this Day. The Lively Ship of War is also to sail, on board of which, the Admiral, another of the Judges, is to hoist his Flag. Others say, that these devoted Persons are to be taken agreeable to a late Act of Parliament, and sent for Trial to London!—Can any one hear of Troops and Ships of War posting from one Part of the Continent to the other—Governors, Admirals and Custom-House Officers parading from Colony to Colony, subjecting the Inhabitants to Trial, without Juries, on Matters done within the Body of a County, or what is worse, if possible, transporting them beyond the Seas, and think himself secure in the Enjoyment of his natural and constitutional Rights!——— How long, O LORD——How long! Boston Gz.

The Julius Cæsar Tender, with Volunteer Seamen for his Majesty's Ships at Plymouth, was lost in Bristol Channel the 8th of October, and 30 Men were drowned.

BOSTON, December 17.

The packet for New-York, sailed from Falmouth the 13th of October.

Capt. Lee just arrived, brought English prints to the 13th of November, but stoped at Marblehead, where he left them.

Yesterday a Special Court of Admirality was held for the trial of Ansel Nickerson, who desiring time to prepare for his defence, the trial was put off to the 2d, of June.

It is said a motion will be made to Parliament for vacating the Charter of the Colony of Rhode-Island.

NEW-LONDON, December 18.

Saturday night the 5th instant, a dwelling house at Putney, near Hinsdale was consumed by fire, with three people in it—a fourth was so much burnt that his life was despared of.

Mr. HOLT,

As many Thousands may be interested, in the due Consideration of the following Queries, there needs no Apology for requesting the Aid of your Paper to make them publick. and it is hoped that they will, from Motives of Humanity, find a Place in all the News Papers of the Northern Colonies.

AGRICOLA.

THIRTEEN QUESTIONS, to all Farmers that are solicited to remove to the Lands between the Mississippi and the River Yasou, at the South End of North America.

1. Has General Lyman brought any Instrument in Writing, to insure a Title to such as may incline to settle this Western Country?

2. Has the Governor of West Florida, or any other Governor, Authority to grant Patents of these Lands?

3. Must the Husbandman, who is disposed to take up a Farm there, go to Pensacola to solicit for a Patent?

4 May every Person who applies for a Grant, be assured of Success, without a tedious Attendance upon publick Officers, and the Danger of a Disappointment?

5 What Conditions, Limitations and Quit-rents, will be tacked to, or inserted in the Grants; and what Sum must be advanced to the Governor and other Officers, for the Fees upon a Patent of 500 Acres?

6 Is not that Land comprehended within the Bounds of Carolina, or some other old Charter claiming an Extent to the South Seas? And will not the Title under the great Seal of West Florida be disputable?

7. Will the Indians consent to a sale of those Lands; and what will they ask for their Right to 500 Acres?

8. What Regulations are established for aquireing the Indian Title, and for the Survey or Location of the Lands, so as to prevent Cavils upon the Application for a Patent, after the Money is paid to the Indians and Surveyor General?

9. As the Spaniards of New Orleans lie to the Southward of this Country, and the Indians are very numerous on all other Sides, and there is no Passage to the sea, but down the Mississippi under the Spanish Forts at New Orleans, what Provision is made, to secure the English Planters in Case of a War with Spain or the Savages? And where are Forts to be constructed; and at whose Expence? And as the Spaniards are between Pensacola and the Yasou Country, how can Succours be given to the new Planters in a Spanish War?

10 What kind of Policy is to be established for Civil and Religious Privileges to the Adventurers? Will there be any Charter for these great Purposes, and where is it to be issued? Or are the Inhabitants to be governed, like the Canadians, without any Assembly or share in the Legislative Authority?

11. As there can be neither Liberty nor Property without Law, nor any Law without Courts, what Provision is made for the upright and impartial Administration of Justice, with the Privilege of Juries; and are the Adventurers on all disputes, to resort to Pensacola, at the Distance of several hundred miles through the Spanish Settlements; or are they to have Courts in their own Country?

12 As Sea Vessels must be warped up the Mississippi, to reach as far as New Orleans, which is 100 Miles from the Mouth of the River, and the Yasou Lands lie from 300 to 5 or 600 Miles higher, can the inhabitants ever have any, and what great Advantages in a Way of Commerce? And if not,

13. What are the Motives, that can, in the Mind of a considerate Farmer, over-balance the unspeakable Hardships and Dangers, to which the new Planters of Yasou, will necessarily be exposed from a hot Climate, in a new Country without a Fort and without a Port, in the Vicinity of Jealous Spaniards, and surrounded by the savage Barbarians of the Wilderness?

NEW-YORK, December 24.

By a Gentleman from Albany we learn, that the Court was opened there on Friday the 11th Inst for the Trial of the Money Makers confined in Gaol at that Place; and that on the Night of Wednesday the 9th, the said Prisoners intended to have had a general Gaol Delivery, having nearly effected an Escape by breaking out of the Prison near the Chimney, but being heard by the Guard that has been kept over the Gaol ever since their being committed, they were prevented, and more closely confined.

On Sunday Morning next, will be preached, a Charity Sermon in English, in the French Church for the Use of the Poor.

Some Days ago one James Sheels a Sailor was taken up and committed, on Suspicion of his being the Person who lately murdered a man near Saybrooke Ferry, in Connecticut, as advertised in the Papers. But the Master and Mate of a Sloop lately arrived severally making Oath that the said Sheels shipped himself at the Island of Hispaniola on the 25th of October last, on board the said Sloop, and that he had remained on board till her Arrival at New York the 3d Instant, he was discharged.

Tuesday last the Ship Albany, Capt. Bunyan, arrived from London but last from Falmouth, in 9 Weeks, who on his Passage spoke with the following Vessels, viz The 18th November, Lat. 25, 22, Long. 22, 42, a Ship, 4 Weeks and 3 Days from Havredegrace, bound to South Carolina; December 4th, Lat. 24, 43, Long. 60, 8, the Ship Matty, Capt. Burrows, 11 Days from Barbados bound to Liverpool; the 6th, Lat. 25, 52, Long. 64, 16 the Ship Susanna and Rebecca, Capt. Gannall, 28 Days from Lisbon, bound to Philadelphia; the 8th, Lat. 26, 26 Long 66 59, a French Brig, from Hispaniola, bound to Havredegrace; the 19th, in Soundings, a Sloop, Capt. Gwin, from St. Eustatia for New York; and on the 20th, a Schooner from Boston, bound to North-Carolina.

Mr and Mrs. Young, of Philadelphia, Mr Israel, of this Place, Mr. John Minty, Capt. John Henderson, and several others, came Passengers with Capt. Bunyan.

Yesterday the Lady Gage, Capt. Farmer, and the Glasgow, Capt. Marquis, sailed for South Carolina, and the New-York, Capt. Jones for Bristol.

The same Day the Sloop Fame, Capt. Viner Leaycraft, arrived in 7 Weeks from Jamaica, who on his Passage in Lat. 35, 50, spoke with Captain Creighton, 30 Days from Hispaniola bound to New York, whom he accompanied 4 or 5 Days and parted with in Lat. 36; and in Lat, 35, spoke with a Schooner, 2 Days out from Virginia bound to Nevis, which had lost her Mainmast and the Head of her Foremast.

Also arrived the Sloop Johnson, Capt. Peter Haven, in 34 Days from Tortola, who, on the 19th Instant, Lat. 39, 10, spoke with the Ship Queen of Portugal, Capt. Joseph Castles, from Tortola bound to Philadelphia.

Yesterday the Ship Franklin, Capt. James Colvin, arrived in 8 Weeks and 4 Days from Kingsale, who an his Passage the 7th December, 30 Lat. 15, spoke with the Ship Walter, Capt. Richard Hunter, from Alicant bound to Philadelphia and Virginia, 8 Weeks out; and on the 17th, Lat. 37. 28, spoke with the Brig Sarah, Capt. Thomas Walker, 8 Weeks and 3 Days from Liverpool bound to Virginia.

Last Night arrived the Mercury Packet Boat, Capt. Dillon, in 9 Weeks and 3 Days from Falmouth, our Papers by her are not so late by 10 Days as those by Capt. Holbrook.

Address of the Marine Society, to the Honourable Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, Baronet.

SIR,

AS all Institutions designed for the Relief of the Distressed, naturally look up for Countenance to the Worthy and Humane, the Marine Society of the City of New-York, established for that important Purpose, cannot in its infant State, forget such a Character as Sir William Johnson's, nor fail of soliciting the Patronage of a Gentleman who has long been an Ornament to his Country, and more than once, under the hand of Providence, its Defender.

It is from Persons thus eminent and distinguished, that benevolent Institutions, in all Times, have received effectual Support; and such are they who most frequently enjoy the sublime Pleasure, which is reflected from that bestowed on another.

To increase their own Consideration, and to have an Opportunity of expressing their respectful Sentiments of you, Sir, the Marine Society, at their last Meeting unanimously elected you a Member of their Corporation; and they have now to request, you will be pleased to approve of their having done themselves this Honour, by accepting the incloted Testimonial of your Election, and a Copy of their Charter.

By Order of the Society,

LEONARD LISPENARD, Chairman.

Johnson Hall, October 19, 1772.

Sir,

I Lately received your very polite and complementary Letter by Order of the Committee of the Marine Society, and have since been honoured with the elegant Testimonial of my Election, and a Copy of the Charter.

The Benevolence, as well as Advantage to the Public, of that judicious Institution having been sufficiently felt in Europe will, I trust, under the wise Regulations of the Members at New York, reflect much Credit upon them, and manifest its Utility in America. Fully Sensible therefore of its just Pretensions to universal Countenance, I beg, Sir to offer my best Thanks and Acknowledgments to the Gentlemen of the Society, for their Attention to, and the Honour conferred on me by my Election as a Member of their Corporation; and for the very polite Manner in which it has been committed to me; assuring them, that I shall always testify my Regard by an Adherence to their Interests, and by contributing every Assistance in my Power, to the Marine Society.

I am, with much Esteem, Sir,

The Society's and your very humble Servant,

WILLIAM JOHNSON.

MAREDANT's Antiscorbutic Drops.

A fresh parcel are just landed, at 14s. a bottle, they have performed a great number of remarkable cures, of which certificates may be seen at James Rivington's (where the medicine may be had).

The following is amongst them.

To Mr. NORTON, Surgeon in Golden square,

SIR, Pill, near Bristol, March 18, 1772.

I Think I should be undeserving the benefit I have received, and greatly deficient in point of gratitude to you, did I not lay before the public my late deplorable situation, and the benefit I have received by your Maredant's Drops. My case was this. About a year and a half since, I got a cold, (by riding to Bath in a rainy day) succeeded by a malignant fever, which, with difficulty, I survived: Some months after this, I perceived an erruption on my arms and legs, and afterwards on the face, to such a violent degree, that it was one entire scab, and smelt intolerably; my eyes, nose, and mouth, were almost closed up, which obliged me, for some time, to live on spoon meat only: I had also three inveterate ulcers on my left leg, and was reduced to a mere skeleton. I had the advice of the most eminent of the faculty, at Bristol, to no purpose. In this deplorable situation was I, when I heard of the almost incredible cures performed by your drops: By taking them, the ulcers in my leg are healed, the erruption has disappeared, and I enjoy a better state of health than I have for these several years past. I desire you will make this public, for the benefit of my fellow sufferers.

I am, with Gratitude,
Your much obliged humble Servant,
ROBERT SHIELDS.

Witnesses, Thomas Rawlins, William Hodds. 647

THIS is to give notice to all persons, creditors to Abijah Beach, of Stratford, in the county of Fairfield, and Colony of Connecticut, insolvent debtor; that pursuant to an act of the General Assembly of said Colony, held at New-Haven, in said colony, on the second Thursday in October, A. D. 1772 (appointing us the subscribers, trustees to said Beach, to receive his estate and effects, and dispose of the same for the benefit of his creditors) there will be a meeting of said Beaches creditors, at Mr. David Osborne's, Innholder in said Stratford, on the second and third Mondays of January, and the first Monday of February next, then and there to agree on the best method for recovering, disposing of, and distributing said Beach's dues and estate, for and among said creditors.

Stratford, Dec. 17, 1772. 647

THEOPHILUS NICHOLS, JOHN BROOKS, JOSEPH CLARK, } Trustees to said Beach.

ISAAC HERON, Watch-Maker,

At the corner by the COFFEE-HOUSE, sign an arched Dial; has for sale,

A Few very fashionable warranted watches, in gold, silver, gilt and green cases, which he will sell as low as they are retailed in London.——Also, Ladies elegant steel watch-chains; mens do. seals, trinkets, glasses, springs, strings, and keys by the dozen; enamelled-dials; elegant do. for the Craft, Ancient, and Modern.—Elegant broach-jewels for their honest breasts; sword-knots, sundries, &c. with

Sprigs, which more beauteous makes the fair;
And lockets, various, for the hair.

The watches he repairs, he does as well and charges as low for, as his neighbours, i. e. as near the London prices as possible. To say more, would neither be prudent nor honest. As usual, he warrants their performance——not for ever, but one year, and if they be not very bad, for ten; after the first, at 4s. per ann. for each, cleaning; accidents and mismanagement of them excepted; but,

Should the all-sustaining hand, him drop,
His movements all, springs, wheels, hands must stop!
Then, like the tale of "a bear and fiddle,"
This bargain——"breaks off in the middle."

He is extremely grateful to his friends, and the indulgent public, for their smiles and favours, and really means to merit a continuance of them.

☞ It is high time the following watches were returned him, viz. H. Clay, London, 3630—Thomas Hills, London 11148, and a large old one John Hanwell, London, missig—all in silver cases. The brethren of the Pivot are requested to stop them, or either, if offered for repair or sale.

NEW LANDS to be SOLD,

Upon very moderate and easy terms, in the great Patent of Queensborough, or Kyaderosseres, in the County of Albany.

THIS patent was lately divided under the partition act, by Col. Glen, of Schenectady, Mr. Christopher Yates of Albany, and Mr Thomas Palmer, of New Windsor, in Ulster county Commissioners, and Mr. Charles Webb, of Stamford, in Connecticut, the Surveyor; by whom all purchasers may be informed of the nature and quality of this extensive Tract, which is capable of containing many townships, and advantagiously situated to the North and West of Albany, between Hudson's and the Mohawk's river. Mr. Palmer's general account of the patent is as follows:

This tract has many pleasant and advantageous ponds and streams of Water, abounding with trout and other fish; Kayaderosseres Kill is the most considerable creek in the patent, and that called Saraghtoge Lake the largest of the lakes. The soil is in general very good, from opposite to Fort Edward down to Saraghtoge along Hudson's river, and from thence on a North Westerly direction to the North-West bounds of the patent, so as to include the southerly part of Kayaderosseres Creek and its branches, and so southerly and south easterly to the patented lands on the Mohawk River, is excellent land,—the soil deep and fertile,—the timber large and thrifty, and chiefly beech, maple, birch, basswood butternut and white pine.—This part of the tract is well situated, the communication easy and the distance short, and its front no where more than four miles from the Mohawk river; the land generally flat and free from stones. As to the more nothern part of the patent near the head of Kayaderosseres Kill, it is mountainous, but the mountains are accessible and not so rocky as is common to other high lands. Half of the remaining part of the patent, which lies in a triangular form, is as good as the first parcel above described, and the other half tho' light and sandy, will produce good Indian corn and rye. There is a great quantity of low land on Kayaderosseres creek, as rich as the Flats of Esopus or Schenectady.

The particular parcels to be sold by the subscribers, are these:

Lot No. XIII. in the IIIrd	Alotment of	205
Lot No. XIII. in the IVth	—	588
Lot No. IV. in the XIIIth	—	1880
	In all——	2673 Acres.

These three tracts lie to the west of Schenectady, and adjoin each other, beginning at the distance of one mile and extending to 5 miles from the north side of the Mohawk's River,—they are watered by a stream called Eva's Killitie.

Lot No. X. in the Vth alotment 1125 acres.

This lot adjoins the east side of a flourishing village to the northward of Schenectady, and to the westward of Saraghtoge, called Ball's town, which is about 20 miles to the northward of Albany and was settled by Connecticut farmers, in Connection with the Rev. Mr Ball, late minister of Bedford, in West Chester county. A fine stream from the long lake in the town, runs through the west end of the lot down to the Round Lake, and thence to Hudson's river.

Lot No. XI. in the VIth alotment, being about 62 acres, within half a mile of the Mohawk's river, and to the southward of Ball's town.

Lot No. I. in the VIIth alotment, in two parcels; one of 235 acres adjoining the Mohawk's river, and is about three west of the old lowland village of Nestigunes. The other parcel of 215 acres, lies to the south of Ball's town, at the end of the long lake, contiguous to William Apple's patent.

Lot No. XI. in alotment VIII. 817 acres, Southward of Saraghtoge and contiguous to Anthony's Kill, and about 3 miles and a half west from Hudson's river.

Lot No II in alotment IX contains 1783 acres, exclusive of the round lake at the head of Anthony's Kill, is 6 and a half miles from Hudson's river one and a half mile to the eastward of Ball's town, and three and a half to the southward of Saraghtoge lake, which is a fine body of Water above a mile wide, and about six or seven miles long, abounding with herring and fish of various kinds.

Lot No. IV in the Xth alotment, about 70 acres, one mile from Hudson's river, and adjoining the north end of Saraghtoge.

Lot No. IX. in XIVth alotment, 2500 acres, nearly adjoins the N. W. corner of Ball's town, and distant about ten miles from the Mohawk river, has several fine streams and a large parcel of wild meadow.

Lot No XII in XVth alotment, 684 acres, near the N. E. corner of Ball's town, about three miles from the celebrated salt springs; is watered by Kayaderosseres and Mourn creeks, consists partly of rich low land on both sides of the great creek, which is navigable by canoes down to the lake of Saraghtoge.

Lot No. II. in the XVIth alotment, 2300 acres, the south west corner, but 8 and a half miles from the Mohawk river; the west branch of Kayaderosseres creek, winds through the middle of the lot, which contains a great quantity of wild meadow, and low land, drowned by Beaver dams.

Lot No. VII in XVIIth alotment 2234 acres. N. W. from Saraghtoge, and 9 and a half miles from Hudson's river. Intersected at the north end by Snook Kill; and at the south end has the united branches of the creek, emptying itself into the Owl Pond, near Saraghtoge lake; This lot adjoins the salt springs.

Lot No. IX in XVIIIth alotment, 2000 acres, N. W. from Col. Schuyler's mills, on the fish kill, at Saraghtoge, and not five miles from Hudson's river.

Lot No. X. in XIXth alotment, 2145 acres, lying on the west branch of Hudson's river; is five miles to the northward of Col. Schuyler's mills, where there is a fine fishery for herrings, (many hundred barrels of which are taken there every year) and but half a mile from Jessop's mills, contiguous to the north side of fort Miller.

Lot No. XI. in XXth alotment, 2009 acres, also on the west bank of Hudson's-river, from whence there is a ferry kept to fort Edward, it has a quantity of low lands on the river side, that have been long improved.

Lot No. IX. in XXIst alotment, 3520 acres, six miles to the northward of Ball's-town; and the S. W. corner of it 12 miles from the Mohawk's-river, and near the new road from Schenectady, to the lands on the N. side of the south west branch of Hudson's river.

Lot No. III. in XXIInd alotment, 1763 acres, about 8 miles north of Ball's Town, and near the road made by the Commissioners: The south part of the lot is watered by the north or main branch of Kayaderosseres creek, on which there is a considerable quantity of excellent low land, and conveniencies for mills.

Lot No. IV. in XXIIIrd alotment, 1443 acres, the northerly end of which lies on both sides of Hudson's river.

Lot No XIII. in the XXIVth and lot no. I. in the XXVth alotment, lying to the westward of Wing's mills—they adjoin each other, and are twice intersected by the south-west branch of Hudson's-river, and contain together 1912 acres, with a fine fall for the convenience of mills; the northern parts consist of low land.

The above descriptions and the information to be procured at Ball's-town, Schenectady, Saraghtoge, and other places in the vicinity of these lands, may direct the purchasers to the lots they are inclined to view, and examine.—The map of the whole patent is filed in the Town Clerk's-Office, at Albany, with all the proceedings upon the partition, and another copy in the Secretary's-Office at New-York.

The purchasers of the above lots will have nothing to pay for quit rent, there being a parcel of the patent set off for that purpose, and charged with the annual payment of the whole for ever.

The proprietors will expect a part of the purchase money at the execution of the deeds, and give a reasonable time for the payment of the remainder; and exact no other security than the purchaser's bond and mortgage, and will rebate the interest on what may be advanced before the pay day.

Such as choose to purchase any of the afore-mentioned lots, may apply to the subscribers in New-York.

MACHINE to dreſs FLOUR.

THE King has been pleaſed to grant unto JOHN MILNE of Manchеſter, his royal letters patent, for all his colonies in America, &c. for the ſole making and vending his new invented machines, for the dreſſing the flour of wheat, &c. which machines are found to be of great utility by all perſons who have them in uſe; they not only make the flour look better, but alſo make it uſe better, as they make it more lively, and will diſpatch three times as much buſineſs in the ſame time, as the common method of bolting with cloths, and they will do that buſineſs at one operation, which, to be done with cloths, requires ſeveral, for they will dreſs fine flour, two ſeconds and three ſeconds, and clean the bran at one operation; or they may make two ſorts, or only one ſort of flour, by moving the partitions within the box, juſt as the perſon pleaſes who attends it; and conſidering their duration, are much cheaper than cloths. Alſo, his new invented machines for cleaning wheat, barley, &c. which takes out ſeeds, duſt, &c. and will break and deſtroy ſmut balls, and give a brightneſs and luſtre to the grain.

The ſaid machines are to be ſold by JOHN MILNE, and Co. at their houſe in Manchеſter; or by applying to James Milne (ſon of the ſaid John Milne) who is now at Mr. Carleton's, near the Fort, in New-York.

Juſt imported in the laſt veſſels from ENGLAND,
A freſh COLLECTION of the abovementioned
MACHINES.

To the PUBLICK.

HAVING had an experience of Mr. Milne's new invented patent machines, for bolting flour and cleaning wheat, at my mill, where they are now to be ſeen at work, at Long-Iſland—— I think it my duty to declare, that they are a curious, expeditious and elegant contrivance, and what, in my opinion, will anſwer every purpoſe for which they are deſigned, and likewiſe be of great ſervice to the publick. JACOB SEBRING, junr.

To the PUBLICK.

I think it incumbent on me, for the good of the community, and particularly of thoſe who are manufacturers of flour, to declare, that upon trial, I have found Mr. Milne's machine anſwer the purpoſes of bolting, for which they are intended; infinitely better than the old method of doing it with cloths, as they really bolt three times as quick without the leaſt exaggeration, and are a very ingenious contrivance.

A Freeman obſerves, that Ruſſia can never become a formidable naval power. "What (ſays he) ſignify hemp, iron, pitch, tar, wood, and all the materials for ſhip-building, without ſailors? And of theſe the Ruſſians are in utter want. The beſt ſeamen are bred in merchant ſhips; and as the Ruſſians carry on little or no traffic in their own veſſels, they can never have experienced ſailors. 'Till their form of government is changed, an event very improbable, they never will become a commercial power, for every Ruſſian that is not noble is a ſlave, his property depends on the caprice of his maſter, and, conſequently, if he is rich, he endeavours to conceal it—Judge then if he will make a parade of his wealth, by an extenſive trade to foreign parts. On the contrary, he ſells his goods and his labour to ſtrangers that come into his own country; he puts on no external appearance of opulence, and hides his money below ground.—Beſides, England may be allied to Ruſſia without contributing to the increaſe of her Navy.

"All the branches of the Houſe of Bourbon are cloſely united, and the object of their union is to leſſen the power of England. They have not only ſecured Sweden in their intereſt, but by rendering the Sovereign of that country abſolute, they have rendered him an unuſeful ally. By their machinations they have enfeebled Ruſſia by involving her in a tedious war, which, according to preſent appearances, will be ſtill more tedious. In this conjuncture will the King of Pruſſia ſeek no other connection than that of the Czarina, and depend on no other aſſiſtance than the broken armies of Ruſſia? Would not the Empreſs Queen take advantage of his condition, and attack Sileſia? Ruſſia is unable to aſſiſt him, and Britain unwilling. Depend upon it he will unite with France. He cannot do otherwiſe—the neceſſity of the times compels him. Here then, you have France, Spain, Pruſſia and Sweden united. They are all ambitious. Public tranquility is not their object—But where ever the ſtorm breaks, whether on Denmark, Hanover, or America, or on all of them together, England will be the ſufferer."

OCT. 15. An Engliſhman writing againſt exciſe laws, ſays, that they are oppreſſive and unconſtitutional, as they deprive Engliſhmen of one of their moſt ſacred rights, a trial by their peers, and lay them open to the mercy of a Treaſury-board, and their deputies, the Commiſſioners of Exciſe.—He farther remarks, that though they have the authority of Parliament for their proceedings, yet this authority may be diſputed, becauſe laws made contrary to the Great Charter of the Foreſt are not binding, nor is the ſubject obliged to ſubmit to them, becauſe they are unconſtitutional.—This writer concludes as follows:—"Bluſh! Engliſhmen, bluſh! that whilſt ye hold the ſlaviſh ſubjects of France and Spain in utter contempt, for their paſſive obedience to a tyrannical government, both in church and ſtate, ye ſuffer yourſelves to be led by the noſe, to have your very privileges, nay your birth rights, to be taken from you birth rights that your anceſtors bravely purchaſed, (though by the loſs of many a brave one) to be ſported with at the diſcretion of a Miniſter by his tools, a ſet of raſcals, pimps, and paraſites, who, loſt to every ſenſe of virtue, know not the invaluable bleſſing of liberty themſelves, and are, therefore, the propereſt perſons to dragoon a free people into abject ſlavery."

Probus obſerves that nothing more evidently evinces the abandoned principles of our preſent Governors, than to ſuppoſe a large number of the Livery of London perjured in the late election of Chief Magiſtrate. "To ſuppoſe (ſays he) that after every attempt to corrupt the ſacred fountain of juſtice, after ſtraining every nerve to extend prerogative, after giving the moſt flagicious advice to the beſt of ſovereigns, in the inſtances of pardoning men enemies to ſociety, by their commiſſion of crimes inimical and deteſtable to God and man, they daringly ſuppoſe that ſo little virtue exiſts, that an effectual oppoſition to adminiſtration can only be effected by wilful perjury, the moſt daring inſult that can be offered to a free people. The almoſt ſingle inſtance of a ſcrutiny in the election of a Chief Magiſtrate, unanimouſly called by the voice of an uninfluenced, and uncorrupted majority, as the reward of his ſtrenuous and invariable ſupport of their rights, demonſtrates, that it is the man they mean to oppoſe, whoſe publick character ſtands unimpeached, and whoſe preſent and future oppoſitions to their iniquitous and deep laid ſchemes they dread."

Rosewell and Michael Hopkins, two brothers. Inquire of Henry Livingston, Esq; in Poughkeepsie. 62 5

A very convenient house, and store-house joining it, now occupied by Mr. Horsfield; and another house joining that now occupied by Mr. Plowman, at the ferry on Long-Island.

Also will be sold at public vendue, at the Merchant's Coffee-House, the first day of May next, or at private sale before that time, two lots of land, No. 17 and 31, each about 500 acres, more or less, lying in the county of Albany, near Cherry-Valley, at a place called Conydarage, in a patent of 43,000 granted to David Schuyler, Nicholas Pichard, G. Stuyvesant, James Livingston, John Willet, and others.

TO BE SOLD,

THAT noted farm of the late Oliver Bezley, lying in New-Rochelle, in the county of West-Chester, about twenty-four miles from the city of New-York, and about two short miles from New-Rochelle landing, bounded on one side by the main road leading from New-Rochelle to the White Plains. The farm has on it two large bearing orchards, of the choicest fruit, great plenty of various pear and peach trees of the finest sort in America, with a variety of excellent cherry and plum trees, and a good kitchen garden—There is also on said farm, a good dwelling-house with three rooms on the lower floor, having fire places in each, with a very commodious kitchen adjoining; and on the second floor are several very good bed rooms, besides cellars under the house, where roots and liquids may be preserved in the severest frosts without freezing. Also there is on said farm, a good barn with all necessary out-houses, and a new cider mill under cover: The farm is well watered having two brooks running thro' it; the farm contains three hundred acres of land, more or less, of which there is a large quantity of wood land, great part of which might be improved into fine mowing ground, there is at present sufficient meadow ground to mow forty loads of English hay a year.——Said farm is well adapted to raise stock, the farmer's great treasure, on account of the quantity of wood land which in the summer time may be turned into a range to save the mowing ground, a privilege which few farms in that part of the country are endowed with. There will likewise be sold the stock on the farm, (viz.) oxen, cows, horses, &c. with all the farming utensils, of which there are various sorts, too tedious to mention—Any person who may purchase this valuable farm, shall have an indisputable title from the heirs thereof. 62 5

WHEREAS, in the Year A. D. 1763, a Number of military Gentlemen (being somewhat dissatisfied at the Explanation of the King's Proclamation for granting Tracts of Land to the Gentlemen Officers and Soldiers that served his Majesty in the late American War) met at Hartford, in the Colony of Connecticut and appointed Major General PHINEAS LYMAN, of the Provincials, forthwith to repair to the Court of Great Britain, to solicit a Grant of Lands from the Crown, in some Part of the conquered Lands in America; and the Gentlemen then met at Hartford as aforesaid, advanced to General Lyman, two Dollars each, and afterwards, viz. in the Year A. D. 1764, advanced three Dollars each, to enable him to solicit the Crown as aforesaid; upon which, in the Summer Season of the Year A. D. 1763, he repaired to the Court of Great Britain, to solicit a Grant as aforesaid (where he has tarried with close Attention, Application and very great Expense of said Military Gentlemen, as also considerable Sums of Money expended by some of said Company in the Colony of Connecticut, soliciting the Grant as aforesaid, under many and various fruitless Promises and ministerial Disappointments) till the Spring of the Year A. D. 1772, being nine Years, when his most gracious Majesty (in his great Wisdom and Goodness) has seen fit to make both to General Lyman, and his Majesty's disbanded and discarded provincial Officers and Soldiers that served in the late American War, a Grant of a large Tract of Land, bounded West on the River Mississippi, North on the River Yazou, between the Latitudes of 32 and 34. And on the Arrival of General Lyman to America, some Time in September last and reporting his Success with his most gracious Majesty at the Court of Great Britain, as also the good Disposition of the then intended, and now new Ministry, to think favourably of the Officers and Soldiers that served his most gracious Majesty in the late American War; on which General Lyman, together with a few military Gentlemen, &c. met at Hartford, the 16th of October last, and consulting the present good Disposition of the present Ministry, did then and there advertise a Meeting of the Company of military Adventurers, to meet at said Hartford, on the 18th Day of November Instant, which Company accordingly met, and passed the following Resolves, viz.

AT a Meeting of the Company of MILITARY ADVENTURERS, held at Hartford, on the 18th, 19th and 20th Days of November Instant.

Major Gen. PHINEAS LYMAN, chosen Moderator,
Mr. JOSEPH CHURCH, jun. chosen Clerk.
